ANNOUNCEMENTS

Ghost Hunting Kits Now Available for check out!

Now available for check out are two Ghost Hunting Kits. The kits check out for 2 weeks and include a spirit box, EMF detector, voice recorder, infrared thermometer, laser pointer grid, and a ghost hunting book. Check the front desk for availability.

NEW PROGRAM

Intro to Local Archaeology with Zackery Hamilton-Cruze

March 16th 1p.m.

Calling all history buffs! Have you ever wondered about the history of our local area dating back to ancient times? This is your chance to learn more about the history under our feet with local archaeologist Zackery Hamilton-Cruze.

ADULT SERVICES

Stitchin’ Saturdays

Bring your current project and socialize while you work, or learn a new basic skill, on the second Saturday of each month!

Saturday
February 10th
11am-3pm

Fantastic FEASTS

Stop by the front desk to pick a recipe, make your dish, then join us for food and socialization.

Monday
March 11th
6:00PM

Don’t forget your dish!

Spill the Tea!

Join us as we discuss Poor Deer by Claire Oshetsky

Monday
March 18th
6p.m.

ADVENTURERS WANTED!

Join us for Dungeons & Dragons 5e March 25th. Games begin at 5p.m. and 6p.m.

Open to Adults & Teens Ages 13+

Beginners & experienced players welcome!

Call (304) 744-6561 to sign up!

Sign-ups for Adult events begin March 1st

CORNER BOOKSTORE

When March comes in like a lion, it goes out like a lamb! The Corner Bookstore has what you need for enjoying the coming of spring.

We are doing a bit of Spring cleaning so our March selections include a special sale of fiction books. Everything on this limited display will be priced at just 50¢ each. Choose your favorite authors and categories such as NYT best sellers, romance, historical fiction, thrillers and many others.

Since spring is in the air, we also have a lovely selection of gardening and nature books. Check out our reasonably priced children’s books celebrating Easter as well.

There are still some DVDs on our discounted display. Every genre is represented in the collection and all your favorites are just 25¢ each. Hurry in if you’re in need of something to watch. This special price won’t last much longer.

Special Note: We have a large selection of vintage books at discount prices. Come in and browse for that special find.

Spread the word - donations are always welcome!
Tobey’s Pick
I’m in Love with Mothman by Paige Lavoie

A Weird and Wonderful Beauty in the Beast retelling? Yes, please! Truly a cozy romance for a new generation, this cute story features a burnt-out social media star and a shape-shifting cryptid who haunts her cottage-core cabin in rural WV. Of course, they will fall in love, but a cryptid-hunting neighbor and Moth’s mysterious origins may threaten their newfound peace; how will they cope? For fun, fluff, and a bit of spice, look no further than I’m in Love With the Mothman by Paige LaVoie. It’s available on hoopla in audiobook form.

YOUTH SERVICES

We hope the luck of the Irish is with YOU this month! Please note that there will be NO PROGRAMS the week of March 25-29, during Kanawha County’s Spring Break.

We have LOTS of storytimes planned and hope you’ll join us for Spanish Storytime (Tuesdays at 10:30am), Words & Wiggles (Thursdays at 10:30am), and/or a Saturday Storytime (offered on March 2 & March 16 at 10:30am). On March 2, we will be celebrating Dr. Suess’ Birthday and National Read Across America Day!

Teen Territory will continue to meet on Wednesdays from 3:30-4:30pm. This after-school program is open to students in grades 6-12. Follow us on Facebook for more information about the specific crafts and activities we have planned this month.

Lego Night returns on Tuesday, March 12 at 6:00pm, and Chess Nights will be held Tuesday, March 5 and Tuesday, March 19 from 6:00-8:00pm. Chess players of all ages are welcome! Finally, you can “catch” us on Saturday, March 23 for a fun Crafternoon at the library to paint your own beautiful suncatcher. All materials will be provided! Just pop in Auditorium A anytime between 12 and 3pm.

RESOURCES

Kanopy delivers a diverse collection of over 30,000 enriching films, available to stream anywhere at anytime via kanopy.com, on the Kanopy app with your SCPL card!

Follow us on Social Media!

facebook, instagram, youtube, tiktok
@scplwv